Copenhagen's Nyhaven Harbor

JUNE 27: COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

Skjoldenæsholm Golf Club. We play our first round of golf at "Skolie," a Robert Trent Jones Jr. design, which opened in 2007, but is already recognized as one of Denmark's top courses. Framed by forests, the layout opens to centuries-old Danish farmland, lending a spacious, yet private, atmosphere for golf. Skolie's rolling terrain presents a classic test of risk vs. reward strategy, offering golfers several options off the tee. We tour Copenhagen, the liveliest Scandinavian city, where we visit the old city, Town Hall Square, and Europe's longest pedestrian mall. Later relax with a drink in the trendy Nyhaven harbor or stroll in the famous Tivoli Gardens, the miniature city and celebrated amusement park. Later this afternoon we board Sea Cloud II.

Tivoli Gardens

JUNE 28: LANDSKRONA, SWEDEN

Barsebäck Golf & Country Club. The Masters Course at Barsebäck frequently hosts the European PGA Tour's Scandinavian Masters and was the site of the 2003 Solheim Cup. The course offers splendid views over the Öresund and an interesting array of parkland and seaside holes. Our tour will venture by boat to the little island of Hven, noted for its natural beauty as well as for the observatory of the Renaissance astronomer, Tycho Brahe.

The cuisine of Skane is an exciting element of the gastronomy that abounds here turning the region into a food-lover's paradise.

maneuver of our voyage. Enjoy the serenity of a tall ship gliding under full sail at sea. Relaxing on the sun-soaked deck of Sea Cloud II, you will find it hard to imagine a better setting to anticipate the golf that lies ahead.

Ullna Golf Club

JULY 1: STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

Ullna Golf Club. The lakeside course at Ullna is best defined as the heart of Swedish golf. The course was designed by Sven Tumba, a Swedish hockey legend turned golf pioneer, and has hosted five European Tour events. Jesper Parnevik developed his skills here as a youngster and the pride of Swedish golf—Annika Sörenstam—fired a course record 64 to win the 2004 HP Open. Touring passengers are treated to Stockholm, “the city that floats on water.” Our tour begins in the Medieval Gamla Stan (Old Town). We visit the Stadhuset (City Hall), home of the Golden Hall, decorated completely in gilded mosaic tiles and the annual venue for the Nobel Peace Prize banquet.

JULY 2: STOCKHOLM • AFTERNOON AT SEA

Bro Hof Slott Golf Club. Opened in 2007, the stadium course is the first for architect Robert Trent Jones Jr. in Sweden. Already touted as the best golf course in the country, it will host the Scandinavian Masters from 2010-2017 and hopes to be a contender to host the Ryder Cup in 2018. With the beautiful Bro Hof Castle as the centerpiece, the course seems as if it has been there for years. Large, well-placed bunkers, plenty of water, big greens and beautiful landscape define this modern course with a classic touch.

Our tour visits Stockholm’s extraordinary Vasa Museum. The Vasa was the world’s largest warship (226 feet) when it was built in the 1620s. After sinking on her maiden voyage, the Vasa was recovered in 1961 and fully restored to her original beauty. After lunch, we continue outside the city to tour the Royal Drottningholm Palace, a “mini Versailles,” with exquisite gardens and a historic theater.

JULY 3: DAY AT SEA

Today we respond to the most common request of Kalos golfers – one more day at sea. Relax and enjoy the comforts of Sea Cloud II as we sail toward Russia.
