Sea Cloud II

IBERIAN PENINSULA GOLF CRUISE
SEPTEMBER 3-14, 2010

LISBON • SEVILLE • VALDERRAMA • VALENCIA • BARCELONA

Early Arrival in Lisbon—If you wish to arrive early into Lisbon, rooms have been reserved at the Pestana Palace. Contact us for rates and availability.

SEPTEMBER 3/4: HOME • LISBON, PORTUGAL

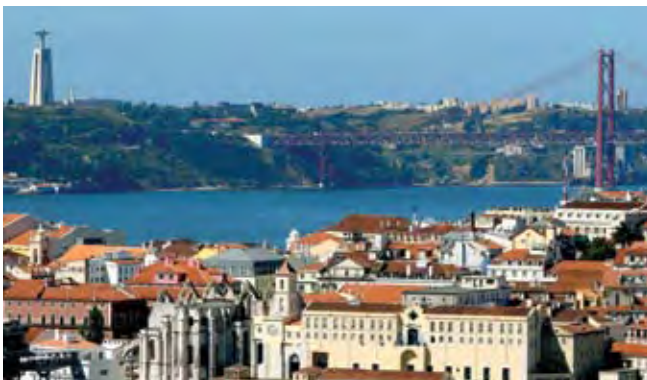

Depart your home city on September 3 for an overnight flight to one of Europe’s most beautiful cities, Lisbon. Upon arrival, you are greeted and transferred to the five-star Pestana Palace. Spend the afternoon at your leisure before our welcome reception this evening.

Penha Longa Golf Club

SEPTEMBER 5: LISBON, PORTUGAL

Penha Longa Golf Club. Golfers play Penha Longa Golf Club, a Robert Trent Jones Jr. designed championship course. The dramatic terrain with rock formations will remind many of Arizona, but the stone aqueduct and distant church spires confirm that we are golfing in Europe. History is evident at every turn. Touring passengers will visit Lisbon’s numerous treasures, including the picturesque cobbled alleys of the historic Alfama Quarter, the magnificent Jerónimos Monastery, and the city-protecting sentinel, the Bélem Tower. Later this afternoon we board Sea Cloud II.

SEPTEMBER 6: DAY AT SEA

What better way to settle in aboard Sea Cloud II than to delight in a day at sea? Sit back and watch skilled deckhands scale the rigging and set the sails for the first sailing maneuver of our voyage. Enjoy the serenity of a tall ship gliding under full sail at sea. Visit the bridge where the officers will explain the operation of this fabulous ship. Relaxing on the sun-soaked deck of Sea Cloud II, you will find it hard to imagine a better setting to reflect on the golf that lies ahead.

SEPTEMBER 7: CÁDIZ • SEVILLE, SPAIN

Montecastillo Golf Club. Designed by Jack Nicklaus, Montecastillo has hosted many of the European tour’s most prestigious events, including the Volvo Masters. The rolling hills of the Andalusian countryside provide the perfect terrain for golf. From the port of Cádiz, our tour heads to Seville. We visit La Giralda, a Moorish tower with a Christian super-structure; the Alcázar, a Moorish palace rich in medieval legends; and Seville Cathedral, the third largest in the world. Those touring will enjoy lunch in the Old Quarter amid the city’s winding streets.

Club de Golf Valderrama

SEPTEMBER 8: GIBRALTAR, GREAT BRITAIN
Club de Golf Valderrama. Regarded as the “Augusta National of Europe,” Valderrama has consistently been voted the #1 golf course in Europe and is also ranked among the world’s top 100 courses. An abundance of venerable cork oak and olive trees give each of Valderrama’s golf holes a distinctive shape and look. The playing conditions are impeccable and the setting is bucolic. Having been the site of the 1997 Ryder Cup, Valderrama provides a historic golf location as well. All passengers will have the opportunity to visit one of the most famous geological silhouettes in the world, Gibraltar. The view from the Rock provides a spectacular panorama of North Africa, the Costa del Sol and the Mediterranean Sea. Touring passengers will delight in our special visit to St. Michael’s Cave and the Nature Reserve to see Gibraltar’s most famous inhabitants, the Barbary apes.

Rock of Gibraltar

SEPTEMBER 9: GIBRALTAR, GREAT BRITAIN
San Roque Golf Club. Golfers play the Old Course at San Roque, designed by Dave Thomas and former host site for the European Tour Qualifying School. Beautiful views and well-crafted holes have made San Roque a favorite among Kalos golfers. Touring passengers will be treated to a culinary experience in Puerto Banus. Here, we will learn how to prepare the traditional Spanish meal of la paella, created with shrimp, calamari, peppers, rice and other savory ingredients.

SEPTEMBER 10: DAY AT SEA

Nine days on board Sea Cloud II allows us to respond to the most common request from Kalos passengers—one more day at sea. Relax as we sail the Mediterranean Sea along the coast of Spain. Enjoy a day of rest before we play our last two rounds of golf.

SEPTEMBER 11: VALENCIA, SPAIN

Today’s tour begins with a panoramic exploration of this lively city’s cultural and historic treasures. We stop to visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site, La Lonja de la Seda, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture, and the Valencia Cathedral, which holds an agate cup claimed to be the Holy Grail. We will also see the architectural marvels of Valencia’s City of Arts and Science.
