GOLF: MILAN GOLF CLUB

Nine-time host of the Italian Open, the Milan Golf Club (1928) is one of Italy's most esteemed. Designed by Englishmen Cecil Blandford and Peter Gannon (Villa d'Este), this secluded parkland course meanders over relatively flat terrain, weaving through mature forest, with each hole seeming to stand alone among the trees. Though surrounded and secluded, fairways are generously wide, and the hardest challenge will be navigating the undulated greens.

TOUR: MILAN

Our guided tour of Milan showcases the multiple eras through which this fascinating city has thrived. We learn about the earliest beginnings of Milan and how the city has evolved from the Roman Empire to medieval times through the Renaissance and into a modern day global fashion capital. After lunch, there is free time to shop and explore Milan.

British architects Cotton and Steel created this layout in the shadows of the Italian Alps, in the heart of Lombardy. The mild climate allows Gardagolf Club to remain in top condition year round.

TOUR: LA SCALA OPERA HOUSE

Opened in 1778, the La Scala Opera House is iconic the world over. On our privately guided tour, we explore both in front and behind the curtain to gain an understanding of how performances come together, from stage design and wardrobe, to instruments and players. Afterward, touring guests travel via first-class train to Venice, where we embark Sea Cloud II.

SEPTEMBER 18: DUBROVNIK, CROATIA

Deemed the "Jewel of the Adriatic" by Lord Byron, Dubrovnik is an ancient city filled with stone palaces, Venetian-style buildings and majestic bell towers. Our morning tour takes us to the Franciscan Monastery, whose cloister ranks among the most inspiring sites of the city. GOLF: ACAYA GOLF CLUB

Michael Hurdzan and Dana Frye put a completely new face on the old Acaya Golf Club, designing quality golf holes set amongst the olive trees and masserias of the Puglia region. The architects moved and shaped earth primarily around the greens, creating approach shots that are aesthetically pleasing and challenging. Every year, golf critics from around the globe bestow praise on this beautiful layout.

TOUR: LECCE

Our day is dedicated to exploring the Puglia region, with visits to the towns of Otranto and Lecce. Boasting a rich architectural and artistic heritage, Lecce is filled with monuments and buildings that are architectural examples of a Baroque style called “Leccese.” Enjoy this fascinating trip to “old Italy” which is not included on most ordinary tours of the Adriatic.

GOLF: SAN DOMENICO GOLF

Against the backdrop of the blue sky and blue-green Adriatic Sea, San Domenico Golf lies a few hundred yards from the coast. The landscape is dotted with olive trees, colorful poppies and the traditional stone walls typical of the Puglia region. The terrain of this former farmland is flat and benign but it belies the challenges posed by the ever-present winds and large natural waste areas.

TOUR: ALBEROBELLO

Alberobello, a charming hilltop village, is home to the famous “trulli.” Because these 12th century conical-shaped stone dwellings are rare, in 1996 UNESCO declared Alberobello a World Heritage site. GOLF'S FINEST TRAVEL EXPERIENCE

The truth about great international golf courses is that they are typically in close proximity to fascinating cultural and historic venues, immersed in unique landscapes ripe for discovery, making our trips ideal for couples in which one spouse is a passionate golfer, and one may rather tour. We dedicate as much purpose to planning and executing our touring programs as we do our golf line-up; no other golf tour operator can make this promise.

We know our clients demand stimulating experiences beyond golf and strive to present our guests with a rich blend of choices between golf and touring each day. Even the heartiest golfers among our guests often remark, "it was tough to decide today between the tour and the links."

Each day, touring passengers will have the option to experience fascinating cultural and historic or culinary and wine tours. On some days, golfers and tour guests will spend the day touring together and on others, they will get together for a private wine tasting or tour after golf.

We challenge you to find a touring program with any other luxury golf tour operator that is as robust, inclusive and exclusive as you will find on a Kalos Golf tour.
